Evercore vs. Lazard

	EVERCORE	LAZARD
Founded	1995, by Roger Altman, a former Blackstone vice chairman and U.S. Deputy Treasury Secretary	1848, by the Lazard brothers as a dry goods store in New Orleans, making it 178 years old
Ticker and HQ	NYSE: EVR, 55 East 52nd Street, New York	NYSE: LAZ, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, with principal offices also in Paris and London
CEO	John S. Weinberg, Chairman and CEO since February 2022. Spent 32 years at Goldman Sachs, ending as Vice Chairman and co-head of global investment banking	Peter R. Orszag, CEO and Chairman since 2023. Former Director of the Office of Management and Budget under Obama; joined Lazard in 2016
Other key names	Roger Altman, Founder and Senior Chairman, still publicly active on behalf of the firm	Ray McGuire, President. Christopher Hogbin took over as CEO of Asset Management in December 2025
Market cap	Roughly $12B to $14B	Roughly $4B
FY2025 net revenue	$3.9B, a company record, up 29% year over year	$3.10B, up 2% year over year
Revenue mix	About 98% from Investment Banking and Equities. The Investment Management arm is small by comparison	Financial Advisory $1.83B and Asset Management $1.28B, so roughly a 60/40 split
Business model	Independent advisory pure play: M&A, restructuring and liability management, capital markets advisory, plus Evercore ISI equity research and sales	Two engines: advisory plus an asset manager with about $254B in AUM, which smooths out the cyclicality of deal fees
People	About 2,700 employees. Entering 2026 the firm had 171 Investment Banking SMDs and 39 Equities SMDs	3,309 employees. 216 Financial Advisory MDs and 124 Asset Management MDs as of year end 2025
Global footprint	Roughly two thirds of staff in the U.S. and about 17% in the U.K. Opened Stockholm and Milan in 2025	41 cities across 26 countries, with a genuinely European and sovereign client base
Advisory standing	Ranked #3 globally in advisory revenue among public firms two years running. Earned 806 advisory and underwriting fees in 2025	Record Financial Advisory revenue in 2025. Revenue per MD of $8.9M, up from $6.4M when Orszag became CEO
Restructuring	IFR Americas Restructuring Adviser of the Year. Advised on roughly half of all liability management transactions since 2024 and 70+ deals in 2025	Long standing restructuring practice plus a sovereign advisory group that advises governments on national debt
Most notable deal	Advised on Warner Bros. Discovery's $82.7B sale of Warner Bros. to Netflix in 2025, one of the largest media deals ever	Felix Rohatyn's rescue of New York City from bankruptcy in 1975 as chairman of the Municipal Assistance Corporation
Recent strategic move	Acquired U.K. advisory boutique Robey Warshaw in July 2025, adding five partners and deepening European coverage	Executing the "Lazard 2030" growth plan: 21 new MDs hired in 2025 and a heavy push into private capital and geopolitical advisory
Quarterly dividend	$0.84 per share	$0.50 per share
Read for candidates	The momentum shop. Advisory only, so your work is pure deal execution and the pay follows the M&A cycle up and down	The institution. Older brand, global and sovereign reach, and asset management exposure that makes the platform steadier but slower growing
